Leadership

The Urban Theological Institute (UTI) of The Lutheran Theological Seminary at Philadelphia (LTSP) is dedicated to providing theological education to church leaders that is relevant and up-building for the Christian community.

The Certificate Program in Church Leadership is designed to offer seminars to clergy and church leaders that will equip them to administer church programs and enhance their skills in pastoral leadership.

The program consists of four seminars over two academic years. Participants who complete the full two-year (four seminar) program will receive a certificate in church leadership. Entrance into the program can start in fall or spring.

Seminar Offerings

YEAR One

Fall

Church Ministries and Servant Leadership: Exploring all ministries of the local church and discovering one's vocation.

Spring

Pastoral Care and Servant Formation: Exploring fundamentals of pastoral care and visitation with attention to self-care and professional ethics.

YEAR Two

Fall

Teaching and Learning in the Church: Development of educational ministries, curriculum development, teacher training.

Spring

Managing Conflict in the Church: Conflict management and resolution in the church.

Schedule and Fees

The seminars are held on the LTSP campus. Each seminar meets 2–3.5 hours, once a week, on Saturday morning.

The fee per seminar is $315 plus the cost of textbooks. Seminars for the fall semester begin in September, and in February for the spring semester.

For more information, registration materials, or to register online, go to: Ltsp.edu/uticertificate; or call 215.248.7302; or complete and submit the attached form. Registration materials will be available several weeks in advance of each seminar.

Invite others to share this learning experience with you!
